PROFILE

Bianca's practice focuses on mergers & acquisitions and private equity (and debt) transactions.

Bianca acts primarily for private equity funds, business owners and investors on transactions involving privately owned companies. She has experience working on a broad range of business law matters, including acquisition financings, debt and equity investments, private equity fund formation, corporate reorganizations and restructurings, and commercial agreements. Bianca acts for clients across a variety of diverse industries and takes a keen interest in understanding her clients' unique business needs so she can provide practical, customized advice.

Prior to joining Mogan Daniels Slager LLP, Bianca began her legal career in Toronto, and is called to the bar in British Columbia and Ontario.
